Adult Members of Gleniffer Thistle

Gleniffer Thistle is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the well being of all its members, ensuring a positive and enjoyable experience for all. The club believes it is important that members, coaches, administrators and parents associated with the club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others. Therefore, members are encouraged to share any concerns or complaints that they may have about any aspect of the club with the Chairperson.

As a member of Gleniffer Thistle, you are expected to abide by the following code of practice:

- All members must take responsibility in ensuring they are up-to-date with the rules and adhere to them
- All members must respect the rights, dignity and worth of all participants regardless of age, gender, ability, race, cultural background, religious beliefs or sexual identity
- ◆ Members should recognise the valuable contribution made by coaches and officials who are usually volunteers. They give their time and resources to provide football for you
- ◆ All members must respect officials and publicly accept their decisions
- ◆ All members should be a positive role model, treat other players and officials with the same level of respect you would expect to receive
- ◆ Members must use correct and proper language at all times
- ◆ Members are not allowed to smoke, consume alcohol or drugs on club premises unless otherwise entitled to do so under licenced premises legislation
- ◆ Members should keep to agreed timings for training and games or inform their coach or team administrator if they are going to be late whilst representing the club
- ◆ Members must wear suitable kit for training and match sessions, as agreed with the coach
- ◆ Members must pay any fees for training or events promptly.
- ◆ Bullying of any sort will not be tolerated
- ◆ Encourage everyone to enjoy the football and understand that people have different motivations for taking part

Any club member, coach, parent player or spectator associated with a Gleniffer Thistle, who does not comply with the above code risks being reported to the "Full Committee" for behaviour which could bring the club into disrepute and could be subject to the club's Disciplinary procedures. The preceding statement also applies to serious breach of the laws of the various Scottish football governing bodies.

I hereby agree to comply with the Code of Conduct for adult members of Gleniffer Thistle

Code of Conduct Coach

It is the responsibility of each coach individually and collectively to ensure that all Gleniffer Thistle coaching sessions and games are fun, safe and active for all participants.

Each coach will:

- Show respect to players, coaches, parents and spectators
- Display and promote high standards of behaviour
- Never engage in, or tolerate, offensive, insulting, bullying or abusive language or behaviour
- Place the well-being, safety and enjoyment of each player above everything
- Explain exactly what they expect of players and what they can expect from them
- Develop mutual trust and respect with every player to build their self-esteem
- Encourage each player to accept responsibility for their own behaviour and performance
- Ensure all activities they organise are appropriate for the player's ability level, experience, age and maturity
- Co-operate fully with others in football (e.g. parents, club, coaches) for each player's best interests

I understand if I do not follow the code any of the following actions may be taken by the management committee:

- Required to be called before the Disciplinary Committee
- Required to meet with the Player Protection Officer
- Monitored by the Head Coach for the age group
- Required to attend an SFA education course
- Suspended by the club from attending matches and training
- Suspended by the club from attending any Gleniffer Thistle events
- Required to leave or have my position terminated by the club
- Details of my conduct passed by the club to the SFA/SYFA/SWFA, which could result in my accreditation being reviewed.

Any coach who does not comply with the above code of conduct risks being reported to the Full Committee for behaviour which could bring the club into disrepute and could be subject to the club's Disciplinary procedures. The preceding statement also applies to serious breach of the laws of the various Scottish football governing bodies.

I hereby agree to comply with the Code of Conduct for coaches of Gleniffer Thistle Coach's
